

Bardi Named Chamber of Commerce Top 25 Small Business Award Winner

Duluth, GA - April 24, 2009 –Bardi Heating & Air Conditioning, Norcross, was selected as a 2009 Gwinnett Chamber “Top 25 Pinnacle Small Business Award Winner.” It is among the Chamber’s most prestigious awards.

President Alex Bardi accepted the award at a luncheon honoring the top 50 business finalists. "As a family-owned business in this area for two decades, being singled out as one of the top entrepreneurs in our growing, vivacious community, is indeed an honor," remarked Alex Bardi, President.

The companies were selected from more than 300 nominees and 50 finalists. Gwinnett’s Top 25 Pinnacle Small Business Award Winners, were judged based on steady and above average growth and profitability, growth in number of employees, contributions to the community, overcoming adversity, original entrepreneurship and more, as defined by the Small Business Administration for their statewide and national awards.

Formerly known as the Small Business Person of the Year Awards, the Pinnacle Small Business Awards are among the Chamber’s most prestigious awards. The celebration recognized both emerging companies, as well as companies that have exhibited a substantial history as an established business.

Bardi Heating & Air Conditioning, a family-owned business founded in 1989, contributes its success to their motto “always, always, always do the right thing.” Serving both the residential and commercial markets, Bardi was the first heating and air conditioning contractor to be a certified Drug-Free Work Place in Georgia. Alex Bardi serves on the Board of the Tommy Nobis Center.
